

A St. Paul's Welcome ...

We extend a warm welcome to those who are single, married, separated, divorced, straight, LGBTQ2+, filthy rich, comfortable, or dirt poor.

We especially welcome wailing babies and excited toddlers.

We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or just growl quietly to yourself. You're welcome here if you're just browsing, if you've just woken up, or just got out of prison.

We don't care if you are more Christian than the Archbishop of Canterbury or haven't been to church since Christmas . . . 10 years ago.

We offer a warm welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome keep-fit mums, hockey dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, and junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or struggling with addiction.

We welcome you if you are having problems, are down in the dumps or don't like organized religion. (We're not that keen on it either!)

We warmly welcome all those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or are here because Granny is visiting and wanted to come to St. Paul's.

We welcome all who are inked, pierced, both, or neither.

We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as kids, or got lost and wound up here by mistake.

We welcome pilgrims, tourists, seekers, doubters . . . and you!
